Introduction

The books in this catalog require a special cassette player available through the network of libraries coordinated by the Library of Congress, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS). Books may be borrowed by any certified patron of any network library.

Ongoing service to readers for Utah-produced titles (CBU, RCU, LP, and BRU) is provided directly by the Utah State Library Division for any reader nationwide. Readers may begin service by telephoning the Utah State Library Division. However, they must first be registered with the library for the blind in their home state. Books produced by the National Library Service (RC) are available through any network library and should be requested from the appropriate, cooperating network library.

Because Utah-produced books (CBU, RCU, LP, and BRU) are circulated nationally and because there is great demand for a limited number of copies of these titles, readers are requested to return books within one month.

Each entry in this catalog contains the title, the book number, the author, a description of the book, the number of cassettes or braille volumes in the book, and the year of the book's publication.

** Items marked with a double asterisk following the title are available for purchase from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Other items such as hymnbooks, manuals, etc, are also available. For a complete listing of "Materials for the Visually Impaired," write or phone:

The Church News section of the Deseret News is read and broadcast every Saturday and Sunday evening from 6:00 pm till 8:00 pm on the Radio Reading Service of the Utah State Library Division. This broadcast can be received only along the Wasatch Front, in the Cedar City / St. George area, and in Cache Valley. Contact the Utah State Library Division for more information.

The Utah State Library Division publishes two companion catalogs: Mormon Fiction and History and Mormon Literature for Youth and Young Adults. To request a copy, contact the library.

Books may be ordered by telephone or by using the order forms at the end of this catalog.

How to Search for and Order Books Online

The library's computer system allows patrons to search for books, order books, and gain access to their patron information. To do this, a patron must have access to the Internet. The web address is <http://blindlibrary.utah.gov>

From this page patrons can access the Library's Catalog - KLAS. The catalog contains all material that can be borrowed directly from the Utah State Library for the Blind and Disabled.

When you are in the KLAS catalog, you can search by author, title, subject, narrator, series, or annotation (description of the book). You can also limit your search by media, such as braille, cassette, or large type.

When you find what you would like, you may call the library to request materials, or continue on KLAS to order online.

At the point where you want to request materials, you will be required to log on. This requires a User ID (your patron number) and a password (to be determined by you). To verify your patron number and to establish your password, please call the library.

Searching for LDS Books by Subject Online

The library's web address is <http://blindlibrary.utah.gov>
From this page patrons can access the Library's Catalog – KLAS. Here patrons can search by author, title, subject, etc. and limit their search by media (braille, cassette, etc.).

Entering KLAS takes you to the Basic Search screen.

Enter the letters LDS in the Search For field.

In the Search Index field, click on Subject.

Then, click on Browse Index.

This will bring up an alphabetical list of about 300 subject headings for LDS books. The list also provides the number of titles for each subject heading.

Click on a desired subject heading to bring up the list of books. You can limit the books by media (braille, cassette, etc.) by clicking on the Show Search Options button on the Basic Search screen. You can then order the books you want online or call the library with your selections.

If you know a key word of the subject you want, enter the letters LDS followed by the subject word in the Search For field. For example, entering LDS faith in the Search For field results in a list of 16 books on the topic of faith. Entering LDS Hinckley produces a list of 6 books about President and Sister Hinckley. Entering LDS romance brings up a list of 162 LDS romance novels.
